

Discourses on Sukthams and Stotrams
Code	Titles	Description	INR
SS01	Guru Stotram Language - Telugu No of Talks - 5 No of CDs - 1	In our Vedic culture, the Guru is revered as Ishwara himself. Any scripture in the Shastra is presented in a teacher-taught fashion, highlighting the Guru-Shishya parampara. The verses of Guru Stotram sing the glory of the Srotriya Brahma Nishta Guru and the Shishya bows to the feet of the Guru implying complete Saranagati. "There is no Sadhana greater than Guru Seva and no Truth greater than Guru Vakyaam." Along with the Guru Stotram, the CD includes a talk on Guru Paduka Stotram.	200
SS02	Sivaparadha Kshamapana Stotram Language - Telugu No of Talks - 7 No of CDs - 1	In this Stotram, the devotee prays to Lord Shiva for forgiveness for not following Vedic path and forgetting the Lord throughout every stage in life. By pointing out the various distractions that take us away from Ishwara, this Stotram reminds us of our relation with the Lord. This CD also includes a talk on Siva Manasa Puja.	250
SS03	Sivanandalahari Language - Telugu No of Talks - 6 No of CDs - 1	This work is attributed to Sri Sankaracharya and is in praise of Lord Shiva. The beauty of devotion flows in every word of this Sivanandalahari. The study of this text will enhance devotion in us. Pujya Acharya delivered talks on some selected verses in Kaladi Spiritual Retreat.	250
SS04	Durga Suktam Language - English No of Talks - 4 No of CDs - 1	This Vedic hymn sings the praise of Mother Durga who is the creative power of Ishwara. The hymn glorifies Her as the Goddess who blesses us to cross over the insurmountable difficulties. Pujya Acharya delivered these talks during Navaratri 2009 in USA.	200
SS05	Om Namaha Sivaya Language - Telugu No of Talks - 5 No of CDs - 1	Om Namaha Sivaya is a well-known Vaidika mantra. Though often chanted in all religious rituals, many devotees are not aware of its import. Delivered at Kasi retreat, these talks of Pujya Acharya, are filled with very interesting Puranic encomiums with their Philosophical relevance.	200